DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to the latest amendment filed on 8/28/01.

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the sentence on page 4, lines 7-15 is grammatically awkward. More particularly, the block "of one or more programs made up of related audio and video bitstreams" has occurred twice in the sentence.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-5 and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 2634

The preamble of independent claims 1, 3 and 13 only recite a local clock. Therefore, the limitation of "program clock" in line 6 of claim 1, line 4 of claim 3 and line 3 of claim 13 has insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claims.

Moreover, the step of "if there is either a difference between the local clock and the program clock frequencies or an absolute...." In claim 3 is awkward. It appears that something is missing after the last word "and".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

5. It appears that the applicant intends to cancel claims 6, 11 and 12 (see the last two lines of the second paragraph in the Remarks section of the latest amendment, i.e., lines 3 and 4 counting from bottom of page 6). However, in the first page of the amendment, the applicant only cancels claims 11 and 12. As a result, claim 6 remains pending in the application. Therefore, the rejection of claim 6 under 35 USC 102(b), as being clearly anticipated by David L. Mills, in the last Office Action is maintained until claim 6 is canceled.
